Canadian Pastor Put into Solitary to Prevent Him from Preaching

"God allows me to be here for a witness to the entire world, to show what happens when you kick God out of your nation. Lawlessness, injustice, abuse of power and corruption crept in," said Pastor Artur Pawlowski, after being imprisoned in February for attempting to preach and minister to truckers in the Freedom Convoy along the U.S.-Canada border. ⁽¹⁾ Pastor Pawlowski's son said, "they (police) were staking out our home for hours, waiting for him to leave the house and they grabbed him ... right before he could perform his duties as a clergyman." ⁽²⁾ Law enforcement told the pastor he was under arrest for "mischief."

For two years, Pastor Pawlowski has been standing up for the right to hold church services during the Covid lockdowns and has been repeatedly arrested and imprisoned.

"He is not the first pastor to be targeted and persecuted for speaking the truth in the face of tyranny and injustice," wrote Standing for Freedom Center. "Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was labeled a public safety risk by the FBI. Pope John Paul II, who inspired the Solidarity Movement (in Poland) was considered so dangerous by the Soviet Union that the KGB tried to have him assassinated... Rumanian Pastor Richard Wurmbrand was imprisoned and tortured for 14 years for publicly declaring that his only loyalty was to Christ and that he would never place the state or the party above Him." ⁽³⁾

Hope for Religious Revival in America

"We can feel and sense the rumblings of revival, and when I say revival, I mean people's hearts turning back to God," said Donna Stands-Over-Bull of the Crow Tribe. "There's a lot of broken areas, broken communities, and our communities are rampant with drugs," said Stands-Over-Bull describing the plight of Native Americans. ⁽⁴⁾ "We've been having healing revivals over the on-line church. God's been healing through social media," said Russell Stands-Over-Bull, senior pastor of Arrow Creek TV e-church. ⁽⁵⁾

"One of the marvels of American history is how the country was born between two of the greatest revivals in history," wrote Robert J. Morgan, teaching pastor and author of 100 Bible Verses That Made America. "The First Great Awakening prepared the Colonies for Independence, and the Second Great Awakening solidified the moral and spiritual foundation for the future." ⁽⁷⁾

"Today our nation's problems are not primarily political but spiritual. And the answers are not found in our politics but in the hope of another spiritual return to God." ⁽⁸⁾

A Prayer for Revival in America:

Father, as your children, your faithful remnant, we come before you today to confess our sins. We recognize our wrongdoing and admit to You that we have been calling right wrong, and wrong right, and have even legalized evil. Father, help us in our desperate hour of need. Without you we are lost. Intervene on our behalf. We ask this in Jesus Name. Amen
