May 17, 2026: Rededication of “One Nation Under God”

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
2 Chronicles 7:14

This day Americans are gathering on the National Mall in Washington D.C. to pray together, as citizens of the United States of America, in a rededication of this country as “one nation under God.” President Trump and the administration have invited and encouraged an outpouring of prayers for the only nation conceived in the liberties bestowed by our Creator.

As Pres. George Washington said, “No people can be bound to acknowledge and adore the invisible hand which conducts the affairs of man, more than the People of the United States. Every step by which they have advanced to the character of an independent nation, seems to have been distinguished by some token of providential agency.”

The Bishops of the USCCB put forward this prayer for our nation:

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome - for the sake of our children, our grandchildren and all who come after us - this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all
